CITY COUNCIL MEETING OF: JUNE 18, 2008

DEPARTMENT: OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS
DIRECTOR: DAVID RIGGLEMAN

SUBJECT:
RECOGNITION OF PEDESTRIAN SAFETY MONTH

BACKUP DOCUMENTATION:

Submitted at meeting – Copy of Proclamation for Pedestrian Safety Awareness Month

Minutes:

Recognizing June as Pedestrian Safety Month, COUNCILMAN WOLFSON presented a video demonstration and emphasized the importance of educating adults as well as young people. He called upon DETECTIVE BILL REDFERN of the Fatal Investigation Division of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department to speak on pedestrian safety. DETECTIVE REDFERN revealed that one-third of all accidents are pedestrian related. Most of those cases are needless and the fault of the pedestrian.

COUNCILMAN WOLFSON read the inscription and presented the Proclamation to DETECTIVE REDFERN.

Additional Ceremonial Item:

Prior to the conclusion of the Ceremonial portion of the Agenda, MAYOR GOODMAN recognized students of the Beatty Elementary School in Henderson, Nevada. He asked each of the students and their teachers to join the Council at the podium. The students presented individual awards and certificates to MAYOR GOODMAN and each of the COUNCILMEMBERS.
